BixMove, India's most desired and trusted relocation company has been recognized as the best delivery service in the logistics industry. They are highly professional and maintain honesty in service. It has a Pan-India service and very soon launching in foreign countries as well.

The company believes in stretching out to the maximum places in order to give a systematic and well-organised service which the customer expects from a logistics company. They also provide a pre-survey and instant quotation to the customers. The good thing about the company is they maintain transparency, trust and tranquillity as the three key factors they bring in the service. There is no hidden cost but everything is very apparent. This enables the customers to trust them towards their service and also about the company, the company said in a statement.

The company is providing the services for residential and corporate relocation, commercial goods, vehicle relocation, goods insurance and many more. They also have their own storage and warehouse where the goods are kept safely. So, the customers do not need to worry at all for losing any of their valuable goods. However, in case of any damages or loss because of natural calamities, the customer can anytime claim for it to recover the loss. The company claims that they never compromise on the quality of materials used for packing the products.

"Additionally, it doesn't suffice about our concern towards the budget we are going to spend during shifting. Relax, BixMove is the right answer for everyone," the company said in a statement.

The company claims it believes in honesty, product safety and on-time arrival. In fact, customer satisfaction is their biggest assets. During the process, the manager visits the client's place with the expert before finalizing the list of items to be moved. He is the one point of conduct where all the planning, organizing, directing and controlling take forward. They give 100% guaranteed service to the customers and make sure to keep the communication clear. The customer can track their shipments through the help of our website or customer care.

The most important factor during shifting is about product safety. However, with BixMove service one just need to take a back seat and relax. This is also one of their own personal experience they had come across over the years.

One will not go wrong as you began to use their service because their teams who are very skilled and dedicated in their work will pack all your valuable goods in a separate box as per the department wise. This to avoid any confusion towards your stuff as you disassemble in the new home, the company claimed.

For wrapping the products, they use with all the valuable goods they use movers stretch wrap, butchers paper, speciality boxes, plastic packaging materials, wooden box, portable wardrobe, tape dispensers, thermocol box, bubble bags, foam sheets, thermocol sheets.

And while loading and unloading use floor dolly, standard tools, rope/tie downs, furniture pads/quilts, rigid diamond grid, dual belt with offset arm tighter, computer carts, panel carts, e-carts, 4-wheel dollie, furniture skates, two-wheel dollie and appliance dollie. The company uses all this equipment to safeguard the valuable goods from any damage.

The company has a good strength of executives who have extensive experience in relocation. All the works are carried forward under the control of the manager. He will supervise and makes sure every work goes perfectly well. The teams are very hard working and limitless in their job. They work like a pro and no small job is small or big for them as they are very devoted to their responsibilities, the company claimed.

It added that it can go even the extra mile and disassemble customer's items even at their destination. Every item will be packed and labelled with utmost care. They entirely take control of all the work and gives door to door service and will make sure all your goods are delivered safely and on time as they are very punctual in their timing and highly respect customers' time schedule. They rescue from all the tensions and gives us a hassle-free service as possible. By choosing them the customers will have a lower risk and most cost-effective price as they maintain flexibility and transparency and the price is within budget, the company claimed.

They also have an awesome support team who are very co-operative working for 24x7 and assist the customers in a dignified manner. All their services bear the stamp of quality. They are unique and less expensive. In short, customers can save their money and time with them. Unlike other competitors, they move one family or corporate relocation at a time so that your belongings don't get mixed up with another family on the moving truck.

They can be reached whenever needed and expect the best service as per your requirements. The team who are groomed experts to provide the art of moving facilities, taking care of your precious belongings right from packing to unpacking which you can't afford to lose is being taken care into utmost care. They have been providing people with the best result and high-end quality service has become a household name in the logistics industry. They will help you at every stage and will even do the heavy lifting for you with professional technique. And all these services are provided with a reasonable budget.

Most people refer a company to others like family, friends and relatives if the company had given good service and BixMove is one of them. Today, the company is proud of the fact that most of their customers are referred one from the previous customer. These shows they have been accepted appreciated and recognized by the people. The best about them is they will try to listen to you first with attention so that your request and requirements are delivered with satisfaction. They ensure the best value for your time and money without compromising over their quality as they believe in "Serving our customer is the biggest holistic service".

The company also welcomes criticism and even appreciation as it helps them to come up only with the best solutions for the customers. "When we are with them during relocation, there is no question of disappointment but it will be an awesome experience. As a user, we will feel immensely happy and satisfied with the kind of service they provide to the customers," the company claimed.

"We are the best because we learn from what we are doing. Every day of our job is a learning process that drives us to come up with more creative ideas to offer our clients. We remain on our track and we continue to keep moving forward," said one of the executives.

"It is a very humble moment for us to come up with this relocation idea to help the clients in moving to places. Through our hard work and reputation for staying true to our moral compass, we have built a company that focuses exclusively on Customer- Centric Service. Today, we take pride in our decision as within a short time the company is growing rapidly with more customers coming forward and using our service," said Sanjay Poonia, one of the co-owners of BixMove Packers and Movers.
